

PEACE CORPS PREP

Interested in grassroots international development? Considering a career in public service or the NGO sector? UCEAP's free Peace Corps Prep program is the place to start.

GET AN EDGE

- Prepare for a career in international development, public service, or diplomacy
- Become a highly competitive Peace Corps applicant
- Sharpen skills that will get you hired

BUILD FOUR CORE STRENGTHS

- Training and experience in education, health, environment, agriculture, youth development, or community economic development
- Language skills
- Intercultural insight
- Leadership and professional abilities

REACH YOUR GOALS

Satisfy the Peace Corps Prep program plan while studying abroad with UCEAP and taking courses at your home campus. You can even use past coursework, UCEAP study abroad programs, and internship or work experiences to fulfill the requirements. The program is self-paced, so your only deadline is finishing before graduation.

SHOW OFF YOUR SUCCESS

Walk across the stage having scored Peace Corps Prep graduation cords, a Peace Corps certificate, and a ready-to-impress résumé.
